

He'eia - music by J. Kalahiki

C
Aia i He'eia la
.....G7...C vamp: G7-C-G7-C
I ka nalu e he'e ana
Ea, ea, ea, ea
C
He'e ana i ka muku la
.....G7 C vamp
Ho'i ana i ka lala
Ea, ea, ea, ea
C
A na'u i kikaha la
.....G7 C vamp
'O ia ae kai
Ea, ea, ea, ea
C
A he kuhihewa ko'u la
.....G7 C vamp
Aia i ka poli
Ea, ea, ea, ea
C
Ha'ina ka puana la
.....G7 C vamp
O Halala i ka nuku manu
Ea, ea, ea, ea
(optional Ha'ina)
Ha'ina mai ka puana la
O Kaleleonalani
Ea, ea, ea, ea

King David Kalakaua

There at Heeia
We go surfing on the waves
Tra la la la, tra la la la

Surfing of the crest
Returning on the diagonal
wave
Tra la la la, tra la la la

Tis I who criss-crossed
The edge of the shore
Tra la la la, tra la la la

I mistakenly thought
You were in my arms
Tra la la la, tra la la la

Tell the refrain of
The over-sized beak of the bird
Tra la la la, tra la la la

The end of my story
In honor of Kaleleonalani
Tra la la la, tra la la la

Source: Music of Ancient Hawaii by Dorothy M. Kahananui, Noble's Hawaiian Hulas - This chant as told by Lydia and David Bray, is a mele inoa (name song) for King Kalakaua and is not about surfing as we know it.